

Kimberly Smedley

AUTHOR | MOTIVATIONAL SPEAKER | ENTREPRENEUR | TELEVISION PERSONALITY

She holds a multitude of titles to include serial entrepreneur, author, TV personality, motivational speaker and mom; Kimberly Smedley is on the rise developing a platform to inspire others with her personal journey.

Starring on BET/CENTRIC's breakout docu-series "From The Bottom Up", executive produced by entertainment legend Queen Latifah and Nicci Gilbert, sets the stage for fans to intimately engage in Kimberly's post-prison life as she uses her training, industry expertise and business acumen in the world of beauty to successfully transition back to her millionaire status. She is determined to come back better than ever and leaves viewers wanting more.

After being revealed as the "go to girl" in the black market world for butt injections, Kimberly's life took a major turn, landing her in prison. It was at that point that she began to self-reflect, was humbled by losing her thriving business and recognized she would have to re-build using all of the tools gained throughout her journey. The cornerstone of her new reality is shared through "The Backside of the Story", chronicling her double life.

Kimberly's life story has been shared with millions and serves as the foundation of her messaging as a motivational speaker, fulfilling her mission to inspire, educate and empower women and girls. She's also been featured on influential Media platforms including The Doctors, The Steve Harvey Show, American Greed, ABC News and the Breakfast Club, amongst others.

She continues to conquer the industry, tapping into her love for beauty. As the owner of All About Waxing and Threading in Stockbridge, GA, she is cutting her teeth as an industry educator in this segment of the aesthetic marketplace, formulating natural products for her clients and providing a five-star experience for every client who crosses her path.

Kimberly is changing lives, including her own, one treatment at a time.
